

Preservation of Kikuyu Indigenous Education through Digital Storytelling

Featuring a hands-on lesson activity: Gikuyu and His Nine Daughters; An Origin Story

DATE: WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13

TIME: 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM

LOCATION: HOUSE OF LEARNING, ROOM 190

Discover Kikuyu folktales through storytelling, art, and language to connect with Indigenous knowledge.

Presented by Leticia Kanywuiro
Supervisors: Dr. Alana Hoare and Dr. Mixalhíts'a7

THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Education
& Social Work

ABSTRACT

The authors, Leticia Thogori Kanywuiro and Rose Wangui Thuo, represent intergenerational learning and the matriarchal leadership of a mother and daughter as they work in partnership with Elders, School of Education faculty mentors, and the All My Relations Research Centre and TRU Open Press.

TRU
Open Press

